Looks like you're gonna be a dad to one or two babies. Was sick enough to go to the clinic this afternoon and had to get an ultrasound to make sure I wasn't having an ectopic pregnancy. I wasn't. I found out that I've been pregnant with twins. Looks like one of them passed or isn't doing well, probably because of the medicine I took. I had the option of a surgical abortion and elected not to. If I'm going through this on my own, I will let God decide if he wants both, one, or none to be born. And the kid (s) would deserve to know their father's side of the family.

I'm giving you one more shot to admit you were overwhelmed and panicked and apologize. Otherwise, you are not and apologize. Otherwise, you are not getting any input going forward. Your behavior is appalling, coercing me to get an abortion for your own personal agenda, and I will escalate this if I don't hear back from you. I talked to a lawyer, who told me I can have a court order to establish paternity at eight weeks and get child support from that point on, which is 25% of your income, even if you're making less than me. You would not get custody given all you have written about aborting the pregnancy. If you also had manipulated me to take abortion pills that resulted in the deformity or death of the second fetus, I would also pursue any and all legal action for that. If you are going to stick with manipulation, lies, and ghosting, you are not who I thought you were and would deserve it.

I still want to believe that you're the guy who wanted a fresh start with me and to go to Sedona for it on a trip that you told me to book a hotel for. I told you early on that you didn't need to be with me and that I would make the decision on my own with my own timeline, but you insisted that you wanted to be with me and "do this the right way" in the future, which I believed. This is your last chance to show me that you weren't coercing me to have an abortion under

I would have had the surgical abortion today if you were supporting me. I still would if you still intended to keep your word. If I don't hear from you, I am going to go forward with the lawyer. Here's what I did: I made an appointment for the surgical abortion as well as one with the attorney to go over specifics, so let me know which one you want me to cancel. I guess you're right that I don't know who you are, so show me.

You're going to birth a baby with birth defects?

You took pills

I won't know until later on what the issue would be if any.

So what do you want to do?

It clearly affected at least one considering how small it is

It's one baby
