10 IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

11 IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

12 In Re the Matter of:

13 [REDACTED]

14 Petitioner,

15 and

16 CLAYTON ECHARD,

17 Respondent,

Case No.: FC2023-052114

MOTION FOR SANCTIONS
PURSUANT TO RULE 26

(Assigned to The Honorable Julie Mata)

18
19 Respondent, CLAYTON ECHARD, by and through undersigned counsel and pursuant 20 to Rule 26(b) and 26(c), Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure (ARFLP), hereby filed his 21 Motion for Sanctions against Petitioner, [REDACTED], for filing her Petition to Establish 22 Paternity, Legal Decision-Making, Parenting Time, and Child Support, as well as all other
23 subsequent filings by Petitioner.
24

25 Petitioner filed the underlying action for an improper purpose without medical evidence
26 to support her claim that she was pregnant and/or that she was pregnant by Respondent.
27 Petitioner could not have become pregnant from the limited encounter the parties had and 28

1 therefore premised this entire action on a fiction. Petitioner violated Rule 26(b)(1)-(3) in her
2 Petition and subsequent filings.

3
4 ARGUMENT

5 1. This matter arises from the establishment petition filed August 1, 2023. Also
6 pending before the Court are: Respondent's Motion for Leave to Amend Respondent's
7 Response to Petition to Establish Paternity, Respondent's Expedited Motion to Extend
8 Dismissal Date on Inactive Calendar and Schedule an Evidentiary Hearing, Respondent's
9 Notice of Filing Affidavit of Non-Paternity, Petitioner's Motion to Dismiss Petition to 10 Establish Paternity, Legal Decision-Making, Parenting Time and Child Support with Prejudice, 11 Petitioner's Response to Expedited Motion and Respondent's Response/Objection to 12 Petitioner's Motion to Dismiss Petition to Establish Paternity, Legal Decision-Making,
13 Parenting Time and Child Support with Prejudice (filed consecutively).
14

16 2. Rule 26(b) ARFLP provides, as relevant here, that "by signing a pleading, motion
17 or other document, the attorney or party certifies to the best of the person's knowledge, 18 information, and belief formed after reasonable inquiry: (1) it is not being presented for any 19 improper purposes, such as to harass [...] (2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions
20 are warranted by existing law [...] (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if 21 specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity 22 for further investigation or discovery [...]".
23

25 3. Rule 26(c) provides: "if a pleading, motion, or other document is signed in 26 violation of this rule, the court—on motion or on its own—may impose on the person who 27 signed it, a represented party, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order
28

1 to pay to the other party or parties the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of
2 the filing of the document, including a reasonable attorney fee.”

3
4 4. The requirements of Rule 9(c) have been met and a good faith consultation
5 certificate is attached hereto. See also Respondent’s Motion for Leave to Amend Respondent’s
6 Response to Petition to Establish Paternity; Respondent’s Response/Objection to Petitioner’s
7 Motion to Dismiss Petition to Establish Paternity, Legal Decision-Making, Parenting Time and 8 Child Support with Prejudice.

9
10 A. Rule 26 sanctions are appropriate and warranted

11 Petitioner’s behavior is the exact type of conduct that Rule 26 is intended to sanction.
12 Petitioner was never pregnant by Respondent and filed this underlying action in bad faith and 13 with the sole intent of coercing Respondent into having a relationship with her.
14

- 15 1. Petitioner’s commencement of this action and original filing was made for an 16 improper purpose under Rule 26(b)(1).
17

18 Petitioner instigated this action when she filed her Petition to Establish Paternity, Legal 19 Decision-Making, Parenting Time and Child Support on August 1, 2023, which alleges she had 20 sexual intercourse with Respondent, became pregnant by him, and requested this Court enter
21 Orders for Joint Legal Decision-Making, a parenting plan, and order Respondent to pay her 22 Child Support. Petitioner’s Petition to Establish was filed for an improper purpose because 23 Petitioner was never pregnant by Respondent and could not have become pregnant based on 24 their one (1) encounter of oral sex on May 20, 2023.
25
26

27 Despite no underlying Orders, Petitioner filed a Motion to Communicate on August 8,
28 2023, and Motion to Compel on August 23, 2023. This Court denied both Motions. Respondent

1 filed a Response on August 21, 2023, denying that Petitioner could be pregnant by Respondent
2 after one incident of oral sex on May 20, 2023. When Petitioner did not get what she wanted
3 (including attempting to get Respondent to enter into a dating “contract”) she went to the media
4 (Reddit, The Sun, People Magazine, Page Six, Medium.com, etc), the police, Respondent’s
5 father, and even threatened self-harm. See Respondent’s Response/Objection to Petitioner’s
6 Motion to Dismiss (filed 1/3/24). When the media turned on Petitioner and had doubts about 7 the veracity of her pregnancy (as no verifiable medical evidence exists), Petitioner obtained an 8 Order of Protection against Respondent based on “cyberbullying.” (Exhibit 1).
9

11 Respondent obtained an Injunction of Harassment against Petitioner based on the receipt
12 of 500+ harassing messages in (CV2023-05392). During the proceedings, on November 2,
13 2023, Petitioner wore a fake stomach (“moon bump”) to appear pregnant and claimed, with no
14 scientific support, that she was 24 weeks pregnant with Respondent’s twins and due on 15 February 14, 2024 See Respondent’s Response/Objection to Petitioner’s Motion to Dismiss
16 (filed 1/3/24); see also FTR for hearing on 11/2/23. Petitioner then sought to have this Court
17 enter Orders against Respondent despite no verifiable proof Petitioner was pregnant and no
18 child subject to this Court’s jurisdiction (with respect to entering parenting-related Orders) by 19 filing an Application and Affidavit for Entry of Default on August 23, 2023.
20

23 Despite providing no verifiable medical evidence that she was pregnant or that she was 24 pregnant by him (only positive HCG tests and fabricated sonograms), Petitioner sought to force
25 Respondent to communicate with her and threatened to go to the media if he did not comply.
26 Notably, in her Motion to Communicate, Petitioner requested “that Respondent [...] is ordered
27 to communicate with Petitioner [...] The Respondent was The Bachelor on ABC and the 28

1 Petitioner knows it would be in his best interests to keep the details of this case out of the public
2 eye.” See Petitioner’s Motion to Communicate filed August 8, 2023.

3
4 Also, in her Motion to Compel (filed August 23, 2023), Petitioner admitted she “had
5 requested [Respondent agree to] a one to two week trial relationship” prior to filing her
6 underlying Petition and asked this Court to hold Respondent in contempt of Court for not
7 talking to her. Petitioner’s own words prove that she instigated this entire action (including 8 fabricating a pregnancy) to coerce Respondent into talking to and dating her.

10 2. Petitioner’s Motion to Dismiss is unsupported by existing law under Rule 26(b)(2).

11 Jurisdiction was established at the time of Petitioner’s initial filing, which Petitioner
12 continued to avail herself of through each additional filing made in the course of this matter.
13 Ostensibly fearing that she would be held accountable for her disturbing and unsettling
14 behavior, Petitioner recently filed a (contested) Motion to Dismiss on December 28, 2023 the 15 entire action alleging lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
16

18 As discussed more fully in the Response to that Motion, Arizona law is crystal clear that 19 jurisdiction attaches at the time the action is filed. Subsequent events or acts by the parties
20 cannot deprive the court of jurisdiction once attached, even if those events would have defeated
21 jurisdiction if occurring before the action was filed (i.e., Petitioner claimed at the time of filing
22 that she was pregnant with Respondent’s children at the time of filing, so the fact that she is 23 not currently pregnant does not deprive the court of jurisdiction). Statutory jurisdiction does 24 not automatically divest unless the statutes expressly state whether and to what extent
25 divestiture occurs. Title 25 contains no such provision, and the Fry case cited in Respondent’s
26
27
28

1 January 3, 2024 Response to the Motion to Dismiss is highly analogous to the current
2 circumstances.

3 For purposes of Rule 26(b)(2), Petitioner’s claim is not warranted by existing law and 4 does not attempt to make a non-frivolous argument for modifying the law or establishing new 5 law. Simply put, Petitioner misstates the law of subject matter jurisdiction despite clearly
6 contrary precedent in an opaque attempt to avoid the consequences of her improper filings.
7 This is sanctionable.
8

10 3. Petitioner’s factual contentions are not supported by evidence and did not become 11 supported by evidence after investigation and discovery under Rule 26(b)(3).
12

13 The Petition lacks evidentiary support beyond Petitioner’s assertions that she was 14 pregnant with Respondent’s children. Admittedly, any establishment petition made prior to the 15 birth of the child is necessarily lacking evidentiary support, but Title 25 and Rule 26 permit
16 such filings because those claims, if true, will have evidentiary support after a reasonable
17 opportunity for further investigation or discovery. In this case, however, Petitioner’s claims
18 were never true and could not be true because the parties did not have sexual intercourse
19 requisite to conception. In matters where pregnancy and paternity are contested, Title 25 20 contemplates subsequent testing—either before or after the birth of the child—to establish the 21 necessary factual support.
22

24 Since filing, Petitioner has provided no Rule 49 disclosure (and seeks to avoid a
25 deposition) that would support her claim that she was pregnant by Respondent (no sonogram
26 reports, fetal anatomy scans, reports of weekly ultrasounds, etc). She has participated in fetal 27 DNA tests, none of which have conclusively established the existence of a pregnancy or 28

1 Respondent's paternity. At least two (2) fetal DNA tests have come back with "little to no fetal
2 DNA," indicating that not only was Petitioner not pregnant by Respondent, but she was not
3 pregnant at all. Petitioner carefully alleges in her Motion to Dismiss that she is "no longer
4 pregnant" but refuses to provide evidence of the termination or miscarriage of the pregnancy
5 (e.g., fetal death certificates). It is critical for this Court to take evidence and investigate
6 whether Petitioner was ever pregnant in the first instance, both for purposes of declaring non-
7 paternity and for determining the appropriateness of Rule 26(b)(3) sanctions.
8

10 4. Rule 26(c)(1) contemplates sanctions by motion or on the court's own impetus.

11 Even if Respondent did not request sanctions—which he previously did and now
12 reiterates by separate Motion to address any proffered procedural irregularity—this Court may 13 investigate and impose sanctions on its own motion. Rule 26 requires signatures on pleadings
14 and filings and attaches substantial meaning to those signatures: a person filing a document
15 certifies to the Court that it is being presented for a proper purpose and is supported by law and 16 evidence. The Rule requires parties and attorneys to conduct at least a reasonable inquiry before
17 signing filings, and sanctions exist to ensure compliance, vindicate misuse of the Court's 18 resources and authority, and to make responding parties whole for frivolous lawsuits.
19 Respondent asserts that the circumstances of this case are so egregious that this Court ought to 20 impose sanctions on its own, even if for no other reason than to deter specific and general abuse
21 of process.

6/1/2023	Clayton has sent threatening messages since discovering I was pregnant, such as: I legitimately hate you right now. my hatred will only grow if you decide to put me through all of this. My animosity would last for a lifetime and that's not something either of us want to subject ourselves to. One thing about me is when I make up my mind for good, especially when it's rooted in anger, I don't sway. Ever My hate is toward you and you only. if you decide to not take plan B and in the wild event that you are pregnant, I would hate you even more.
9/21/2023	Clayton Echard was The Bachelor and has many diehard loyal fans. He and I are involved in a very public paternity case that is being covered by every major media outlet. Clayton posted to a story to his 270k followers to look me up, which they have, and I have been sent threatening and harassing messages by his followers. I explained this to him and asked him to take down the post, which he did not. By posting personal and sensitive information about me publicly (and without my consent), he has made me feel humiliated and embarrassed.

9/21/2023	Scottsdale PD Officer Vince Johnson called Clayton to explain that what he was doing was harassment in and of itself, coupled with the fact that he was inciting his followers to harass me as well. Despite this call, Clayton still did not take down the post.
10/5/2023	Between 9/22 and 10/5, Clayton has posed as several users on Reddit, including "sillygoosetits", "GossipGooseTits", "[REDACTED]", and others. He has posted private and confidential information, including facts about my medical history, that is known only to him because of our paternity case. This is why it is 100% traceable back to him. He has also been writing defamatory and very hurtful things about me, including comments about how I have gained weight (I am pregnant), how I am not attractive, how my photos are so poorly edited that it is laughable, how I am bad at my job (a self-help podcaster), and how my prior abusive relationship, which inspired a TEDx talk, never happened, despite mountains of evidence. He is doing everything in his power to ruin and hurt my reputation. As a result of what he has posted, I have gotten harassing messages that have told me to harm myself as a result of becoming pregnant with his twins. I am getting other threatening messages as well, and all of this attention from the general public that he has incited is very much unwanted. As a result of this public shaming, he has caused me extreme psychological harm and disrupted my peace. I have asked Clayton to stop the harassment on Reddit and social media so many times, but he won't. I have reported his accounts and posts to Reddit, but he continues to write unacceptable, cruel things about me. He has multiple accounts now and so even if one is blocked, he can create another one. As a result of him spreading false and damaging information under pseudonyms, I feel demeaned, humiliated, and like my deepest sense of privacy has been invaded. In addition, he has been in communication with my ex, who I have an order of protection against, and who he knows is dangerous. I have asked him to stop talking to him because it will put me in danger, but he continues to communicate with him.
10/6/2023	When combined, all of this has led me to feel extreme anxiety and fear for my safety. I have not left my house since September 28th because of this.

5. The following persons should also be on this order. They should be protected because Defendant is a danger to them:
6. Defendant should be ordered to stay away from these locations at all times, even when I am not present.
NOTE: Do not list confidential addresses here.
 - Residence (confidential)
 - Work/Business
 - School/other
7. Defendant owns or carries a firearm or other weapons.
 Defendant should be ordered NOT to possess firearms while this order is in effect because of the risk of harm to me or other protected persons.
8. Defendant should be ordered to stay away from any animal that is owned, possessed, leased, kept or held by me, Defendant, or a minor child living in either my household or Defendant's household.
9. Other requests: No cyberharassment or cyberbullying under real name or pseudonyms.;

Under penalty of perjury, I swear or affirm the above statements are true to the best of my knowledge, and I request an Order / Injunction granting relief as allowed by law.
