

10/08/23 - #0032

LO calls about an OOP being served and a missed phone call from officers

SP: Scottsdale Police, this is Roley(?)

LO: Hi, I'm calling for um two things. Um one, I uh just wanted to see if a restraining order or an order of protection has been served yet.

SP: Okay. What was the address that it would've been served at?

LO: [redacted]

SP: Was there a unit number?

LO: [redacted]

SP: I'm not showing that we have anything holding or pending um at that address.

LO: oh, okay. So does that mean it just maybe didn't make it to you guys because it was just granted on Friday

SP: yeah it probably just hasn't gotten through the system to us yet.

LO: Okay. And then um my other question was I, I actually have an order of protection against one other guy. And um, he's violated the order. And I called yesterday and they were going to call me back uh to take a report but I uh haven't heard back yet.

SP: um what was the phone number they were supposed to call you at?

LO: [redacted]

SP: one second here [~20 seconds of silence] okay, it looks like our officer did attempt to call you um. They left a voicemail but there was no answer. So I can put a call for service back in and have an officer attempt call you again.

LO: okay, that would be great. Thank you so much

SP: ok. Um is this still a good number to reach you at or?

LO: Uh yes

SP: Okay

LO: yes

SP: alright, uh just keep your phone around you. It does show up as a block or restricted number sometimes when the officers call. So just make sure you're answering any phone calls you should receive from them. Okay?

LO: Okay perfect, perfect. Thank you so much

SP: alright you're welcome. Buh Bye.

LO: Bye